From the Pastor's Desk

Catholics are showing their devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary in a special way this week. On Monday, December 8, we celebrate the Immaculate Conception. Our faith teaches that Mary was conceived free of the stain of Original Sin the womb of her mother, Saint Anne. We know that Eve and Mary were the only two women created without Original Sin. The former disobeyed God and took the fruit from the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil; the latter obeyed God and stood by the tree of the cross when her Son died on Good Friday. Unlike Eve who collaborated with Adam in sin, Mary united herself to Jesus and played a part in the world's redemption. We remember Mary's remarkable role in the drama of salvation whenever we cry out, "O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee."

On Friday, December 12, we will celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. (The details of our prayers and festivities are outlined elsewhere in the bulletin.) We cannot overstate the importance of this feast for the people of Mexico, as Our Lady of Guadalupe is the primary symbol of faith for our Mexican brothers and sisters. However, it is easy to forget that Our Lady of Guadalupe is the Patroness of all of the Americas. She watches over and prays for all of her children in North America, Central America, and South America. She invites us to gaze upon her image and ponder the depth of her maternal love. Let us accept that invitation and take time this week to express our devotion Mary.

May the Lord bless you throughout the upcoming week.

Father David Schalk

Answer to last week's question: Violet is the liturgical color for Advent because, like Lent, Advent is a penitential season. We are called to repent of our sins in order to prepare for the coming of the Lord.

This week's question: In what year did Our Lady of Guadalupe appear to Saint Juan Diego?

The Sisters' Corner

Please keep in your prayers Sister Jaqueline Garcia, HMSP. She has been assigned to join our community and will arrive next Tuesday, December 16. We will welcome her with a special reception on Friday, December 19, at 7:00 p.m.

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

Los católicos están mostrando su devoción a la Santísima Virgen María de manera especial esta semana. El lunes 8 de diciembre celebramos la Inmaculada Concepción. Nuestra fe nos enseña que María fue concebida sin la mancha del Pecado Original en el vientre de su madre, Santa Ana. Sabemos que Eva y María fueron las únicas mujeres creadas sin Pecado Original. Eva desobedeció a Dios y tomó la fruta del Árbol del Conocimiento del Bien y del Mal; María obedeció a Dios y estuvo frente al árbol de la cruz cuando su Hijo murió el Viernes Santo. A diferencia de Eva quien colaboró con Adán en el pecado, María se unió a Jesús y tuvo parte en la redención del mundo. Recordamos el papel excepcional de María en el drama de la salvación siempre que decimos "Oh María, concebida sin pecado, ruega por nosotros que recurrimos a Ti".

El viernes 12 de diciembre, celebraremos la Fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. (Los detalles de nuestras oraciones y festividades están en el boletín). No podemos exagerar la importancia de esta fiesta para el pueblo de México, ya que Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe es el símbolo principal de fe para nuestras hermanas y hermanos mexicanos. Sin embargo, es fácil olvidar que Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe es la Patrona de las Américas. Ella nos protege y ora por todos sus hijos en Norteamérica, Centro América, y Sur América. Ella nos invita a contemplar su imagen y meditar en la profundidad de su amor maternal. Aceptemos esta invitación y tomemos tiempo esta semana para expresar nuestra devoción a María.

Que el Señor los bendiga durante la próxima semana.

Padre David Schalk

Respuesta a la pregunta de la semana pasada: El violeta es el color litúrgico para el Adviento porque, igual que la Cuaresma, el Adviento es un tiempo de penitencia. Estamos llamados a arrepentirnos de nuestros pecados para poder prepararnos para la venida del Señor.

Pregunta de esta semana: ¿En qué año se le apareció Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe a San Juan Diego?
