From the Pastor's Desk

I found a great idea for Lent in a pamphlet from Our Sunday Visitor. It's called the "1-1-1 Plan": one sin, one add-in, one give-up. It's a simple way for us to live Lent. Step one: focus on eliminating one sin or fault that is getting in the way of your relationship with God. It could be one of the seven deadly sins or one of the Ten Commandments. It could be something major or minor. Whatever it is, do your best to change your habits and ask God for the grace to overcome that particular sin. Step two: add one positive activity that will deepen your life of prayer or service. The opportunities are endless. For example, you could spend an hour with the Lord in the church on Fridays, visit an infirmed neighbor each week, or attend the Catholic Women's or Men's Conference. These sorts of things expand your heart and help you to know, love, and serve God a little bit better. Step three: deny yourself something that you like. Most of us are familiar with this step, making a sacrifice of sweets, Facebook, or fast food for forty days. The key to this step is choosing something that is difficult yet doable. It should hurt – but it shouldn't kill you! I like the "1-1-1 Plan" because it isn't one-dimensional. It gives us an opportunity to grow in a variety of ways. I hope the "1-1-1 Plan" will be helpful to you.

May the Lord bless you throughout the upcoming week.

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

Encontré una gran idea para la Cuaresma en un volante de Our Sunday Visitor. Se llama el "Plan 1-1-1": un pecado, un añadir, un sacrificio. Esta es una manera simple de vivir la Cuaresma. Primer paso: concéntrate en eliminar un pecado o una falta que se está interponiendo en tu relación con Dios. Puede que sea uno de los siete pecados capitales o uno de los Diez Mandamientos. Podría ser algo grave o no tan grave. Sea lo que sea, haz lo mejor para cambiar tus hábitos y pide la gracia de Dios para superar ese pecado particular. Segundo paso: añade una actividad positiva que profundice tu vida de oración o servicio. Las oportunidades son incontables. Por ejemplo, puedes pasar una hora con el Señor en la iglesia los viernes, visitar a un vecino enfermo cada semana, o asistir a la Conferencia Católica de Mujeres o de Hombres. Estas cosas expanden tu corazón y te ayudan a conocer, amar, y servir a Dios un poquito mejor. Tercer paso: niégate algo que te gusta a ti mismo. La mayoría de nosotros estamos familiarizados con este paso, sacrificándonos de algo dulce, Facebook, o comida rápida por cuarenta días. La clave de este paso es escoger algo que sea difícil pero factible. Debe doler – ¡pero no debe matarte! Me gusta el "Plan 1-1-1" porque no es unidimensional. Nos da la oportunidad de crecer en varias formas. Espero que el "Plan 1-1-1" es útil para ti.

Que el Señor los bendiga durante la próxima semana.
