The donations to the Griffin center have been amazing! Hundreds of items have been collected and so many needy people have been helped because of your generous donations. In July we will be collecting paper towels. Please drop your donation in the box in the vestibule. Every donation helps. The need has increased so monetary donations are always welcome. Put your money in an envelope marked "St. Vincent DePaul" and drop it in the collection basket any time. Remember God calls us to care for the least of our brothers. Thank you for your support.

¡Las donaciones al Griffin center han sido maravillosas! Se ha colectado cientos de artículos y se ha ayudado a mucha gente necesitada gracias a sus donaciones generosas. En julio estaremos colectando toallas de papel. Por favor déjelas en la caja del vestíbulo. Cada donación ayuda. Las necesidades han crecido, así que las donaciones monetarias también son bienvenidas. Ponga su dinero en un sobre marcado "St. Vincent de Paul", y póngalo en la canastilla de la colecta. Recuerde que Dios nos llama a cuidar de nuestros hermanos necesitados. Gracias por su ayuda.

From the Pastor's Desk

As we celebrate our nation's independence this Fourth of July, consider what difference it makes to be a Catholic in the United States. I am convinced that the practice of our faith makes our country more just, compassionate, and stronger for future generations. To be a religious person naturally lends itself to good citizenship, for God calls us to live virtuously and to work for the common good. In fact, the best possible United States is one filled with individuals who love God wholeheartedly and thereby serve their neighbor generously. The proof is found in the varied ways in which the Catholic Church has helped to build up society with its schools, hospitals, and social services. For this reason, our Church cries out against any threat to religious liberty in our land. We know that the expression of our faith is not confined to the four walls of our churches on Sunday mornings. Catholics have long practiced their faith openly in the public square, contributing positively to our nation. Therefore, be patriotic – live your Catholic faith!

May the Lord bless you throughout the week.

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

Al celebrar la independencia de nuestra nación este 4 de Julio, tengan en cuenta la diferencia que hace que ser católico en los Estados Unidos. Estoy convencido que la práctica de nuestra fe hace que nuestro país sea más justo, compasivo, y fuerte para las generaciones futuras. Ser una persona religiosa lleva naturalmente a ser un buen ciudadano, pues Dios nos llama a vivir virtuosamente y trabajar por el bien común. De hecho, el mejor Estados Unidos posible es uno lleno de personas que aman a Dios de todo corazón y sirven generosamente a su prójimo. La prueba de esto se encuentra en las diversas formas en que la Iglesia Católica ha contribuido a edificar la sociedad con escuelas, hospitales y servicios sociales. Por esta razón, nuestra Iglesia clama contra cualquier amenaza a la libertad religiosa en nuestra tierra. Sabemos que la expresión de nuestra fe no se limita a las cuatro paredes de nuestras iglesias los domingos. Los católicos han practicado su fe pública y abiertamente durante mucho tiempo, lo que contribuye positivamente a nuestra nación. Por tanto, se patriota - vive tu fe católica!

Que el Señor los bendiga durante toda esta semana.

Padre David Schalk
