The donations to the Griffin center have been amazing! Hundreds of items have been collected and so many needy people have been helped because of your generous donations. In July we will be collecting paper towels. Please drop your donation in the box in the vestibule. Every donation helps. The need has increased so monetary donations are always welcome. Put your money in an envelope marked "St. Vincent DePaul" and drop it in the collection basket any time. Remember God calls us to care for the least of our brothers. Thank you for your support.

¡Las donaciones al Griffin center han sido maravillosas! Se ha colectado cientos de artículos y se ha ayudado a mucha gente necesitada gracias a sus donaciones generosas. En julio estaremos colectando toallas de papel. Por favor déjelas en la caja del vestíbulo. Cada donación ayuda. Las necesidades han crecido, así que las donaciones monetarias también son bienvenidas. Ponga su dinero en un sobre marcado "St. Vincent de Paul", y póngalo en la canastilla de la colecta. Recuerde que Dios nos llama a cuidar de nuestros hermanos necesitados. Gracias por su ayuda.

From the Pastor's Desk

On Monday, July 11, the Church celebrates the Memorial of Saint Benedict. Without a doubt, Saint Benedict was one of the most important saints in the history of the Church. He founded a great number of monasteries in the sixth century which would serve as the bedrock of western civilization throughout the Middle Ages. Saint Benedict outlined a specific way of life for his monks which is commonly known as the Rule of Saint Benedict. It includes everything from what a monk should eat to what sort of attitude he should have toward his superiors. The Rule, still observed today by thousands of Benedictine monks throughout the world, is a recipe for holiness within the walls of the monastery. One of the hallmarks of the Rule is the phrase "ora et labora," which means "pray and work." A monk's life revolves around these two essential activities. You could say that a dutiful monk is a prayerful and productive monk – if he is not reciting the psalms in the chapel, he is probably tending to the vegetables in the garden. I wanted to draw your attention to the Rule of Saint Benedict because "ora et labora" is a great motto not just for monks, but for all Christians. Our culture stresses the importance of work, but there needs to be room in our lives for prayer, spiritual reading, retreats, and pilgrimages. We have to struggle, constantly and intentionally, to strike a healthy balance between prayer, family, work, and recreation. Hopefully the prayers and example of Saint Benedict will help us do just that.

May the Lord bless you throughout the week.

Father David Schalk

Answer to last week's question: Thomas Jefferson wrote the majority of the Declaration of Independence.

This week's question: Where did Saint Benedict begin living as a hermit?

This is going to be a fun, moving night so please plan to attend! (This event is in English.)

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

El lunes 11 de julio, la Iglesia celebra la memoria de San Benedicto. Sin lugar a duda, San Benito fue uno de los santos más importantes en la historia de la Iglesia. Fundó un gran número de monasterios en el siglo VI que servirían como la base de la civilización occidental durante la Edad Media. San Benedicto creó un modo de vida específico para sus monjes, comúnmente conocido como la Regla de San Benedicto. Esto incluye todo, desde lo que un monje debe comer hasta qué tipo de actitud debe tener hacia sus superiores. La Regla, que aún se observa hoy por miles de monjes benedictinos en todo el mundo, es una receta para la santidad dentro de los muros del monasterio. Una de las características de la norma es la frase "ora et labora", que significa "ora y trabaja". La vida de un monje gira en torno a estas dos actividades esenciales. Se podría decir que un monje obediente es un monje orante y productivo - si no está recitando los salmos en la capilla, probablemente está cuidando de las verduras en el jardín. Yo quería llamar su atención sobre la Regla de San Benito, porque "ora et labora" es un lema no sólo para los monjes, sino para todos los cristianos. Nuestra cultura hace hincapié en la importancia del trabajo, pero también debe haber espacio en nuestra vida para la oración, la lectura espiritual, retiros y peregrinaciones. Tenemos que luchar, constante y deliberadamente, para lograr un equilibrio saludable entre la oración, el trabajo, la familia y la recreación. Espero que las oraciones y el ejemplo de san Benedicto ito nos ayuden a hacer precisamente eso.

Que el Señor los bendiga durante toda esta semana.

Padre David Schalk

Respuesta a la pregunta pasada: Thomas Jefferson escribió la mayoría de la Declaración de Independencia.

Pregunta de esta semana: ¿Dónde empezó San Benedicto su vida como ermitaño?
