From the Pastor's Desk

I want to wish everyone a very blessed Christmas season! This is a time dedicated to pondering anew the mystery of our Lord's Incarnation – the Second Person of the Most Holy Trinity took on our human nature and dwelt among us. God has lovingly entered into the human condition and, in the person of Jesus, he remains intimately united to each one of us as we experience life's ups and downs. Reflecting on the reality of Jesus' abiding presence is the stuff of our prayer throughout the season of Christmas.

There are some important feast days on the Church's calendar this week. December 26 is the Feast of Saint Stephen the Martyr; December 27 is the Feast of Saint John the Apostle; December 28 is the Feast of the Holy Innocents; and December 30 is the Feast of the Holy Family. If you have free time between Christmas and New Year, try visiting church for a daily Mass. (The schedule is in the bulletin.) Daily Mass is a privileged opportunity for us to listen, pray, and receive spiritual gifts from the Lord. It is an investment of time that you will not regret. I hope to see you in church soon!

May the Lord bless you throughout the week.

Father David Schalk

Answer to last week's question: The star of Bethlehem is found in our stained glass windows. You can see it over St. Joseph's right shoulder.

This week's question: On what feast day does the Christmas season come to a close?

The Sisters' Corner

The Sisters would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas! May God bless you richly throughout this holy season.

Thanks to everyone who participated in our Advent dinner last weekend! We look forward to hosting similar events in the parish in the New Year.

Parish News

The parish staff wishes everyone a Merry Christmas! Thank you for sharing your faith with our parish family throughout the year.

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

¡Quiero desearles a todos un tiempo de Navidad bendito! Este es un tiempo dedicado a meditar de nuevo sobre el misterio de la Encarnación de nuestro Señor - la Segunda Persona de la Santísima Trinidad tomó nuestra naturaleza humana y habitó entre nosotros. Dios ha entrado amorosamente a la condición humana y, en la persona de Jesús, permanece íntimamente unido a cada uno de nosotros en todos los altibajos de la vida. Reflexionar sobre la realidad de la presencia de Jesús es el centro de nuestra oración durante todo el tiempo de Navidad.

Hay días de fiesta importantes en el calendario de la Iglesia esta semana. El 26 de diciembre es la fiesta de San Esteban el Mártir; el 27 de diciembre es la Fiesta de San Juan Apóstol; el 28 de diciembre es la Fiesta de los Santos Inocentes; y el 30 de diciembre es la Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia. Si tiene tiempo libre entre Navidad y Año Nuevo, trate de visitar la iglesia para la misa diaria. (El horario está en el boletín). La misa diaria es una oportunidad privilegiada para escuchar, orar y recibir dones espirituales del Señor. Es una inversión de tiempo del que no te arrepentirás. ¡Espero verte en la iglesia!

Que el Señor los bendiga durante toda la semana.

Padre David Schalk
