From the Pastor's Desk

On the first day of the New Year we celebrate the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God. We honor Mary and recognize her as the vessel chosen by the Father to bring forth our Savior. This important Marian Feast gives us yet another opportunity to deepen our devotion to Our Lady and to thank her for her presence in our lives.

On January 1st the Catholic Church also celebrates World Day of Peace. This is a custom that goes back exactly fifty years. In 1967 Pope Paul VI gave a moving address which stressed truth, justice, freedom, and love as the key ingredients to lasting peace in our world.

In his 2017 World Day of Peace address, Pope Francis explains the need for a greater commitment to non-violence in our attempt to resolve international and domestic conflicts. The pope reminds us Jesus himself was a man of radical non-violence. Our Lord taught that the true battlefield is the human heart, where violence is either born or conquered. To put it another way, when genuine love for God and neighbor fills your heart, the very idea of violence against your brother or sister seems absurd.

I encourage you to read the entirety of Pope Francis' Word Day of Peace message. (It can be found on the Vatican's website: www.vatican.va.) I also encourage you to pray for God's peace to reign throughout the world in 2017. Through the powerful intercession of the Mother of God, may the terrorism and violence that plague the earth diminish in the New Year.

May the Lord bless you throughout the week.

Father David Schalk

Answer to last week's question: The Christmas season comes to a close on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord.

This week's question: What popes has the Church had since Pope Paul VI gave his World Day of Peace address in 1967?

The Sisters' Corner

Next weekend we will celebrate Epiphany Sunday with a Three Kings party after the 12:30 p.m. Mass. Come and enjoy this special day with the Sisters! (This event is in Spanish.)

The Sisters invite you to a new Bible Study that will begin on Monday, January 9. Classes will be offered on Mondays and Wednesdays at 6:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. in the church basement. This is your chance to learn about God's Word! Contact the Sisters if you have questions. (This event is in Spanish.)

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

El primer día del Año Nuevo celebramos la solemnidad de Santa María, Madre de Dios. Honramos a María y la reconocemos como el vaso elegido por el Padre para traer al Salvador. Esta importante Fiesta Mariana nos da otra oportunidad de profundizar nuestra devoción a Nuestra Señora y agradecer su presencia en nuestra vida.

El 1 de enero la Iglesia Católica también celebra el Día Mundial de la Paz. Esta es una costumbre que se remonta a cincuenta años exactamente. En 1967, el Papa Pablo VI dio un discurso emocionante que enfatizó la verdad, la justicia, la libertad y el amor como los ingredientes clave para una paz duradera en nuestro mundo.

En su discurso de 2017 sobre el Día Mundial de la Paz, el Papa Francisco explica la necesidad de un mayor compromiso con la no violencia en nuestro intento de resolver los conflictos internacionales y locales. El Papa nos recuerda que Jesús fue un hombre de no-violencia. Nuestro Señor nos enseñó que el verdadero campo de batalla es el corazón humano, donde la violencia nace o se vence. Dicho de otra manera, cuando el amor genuino por Dios y por el prójimo llena tu corazón, la idea misma de violencia contra los hermanos es absurda.

Les animo a leer el mensaje completo del Día de Paz del Papa Francisco. (Se puede encontrar en la página web del Vaticano: www.vatican.va). También les animo a orar para que la paz de Dios reine en todo el mundo en el 2017. Que a través de la poderosa intercesión de la Madre de Dios, el terrorismo y la violencia que Plaga la tierra disminuyan en el Año Nuevo.

Que el Señor los bendiga durante toda la semana.

Padre David Schalk

Respuesta a la pregunta pasada: El tiempo de Navidad termina con la Fiesta del Bautismo del Señor.

Pregunta de esta semana: ¿Cuáles papas ha tenido la iglesia desde que el Papa Pablo VI dio su discurso del Día Mundial de la Paz en 1967?
