From the Pastor's Desk

I was remiss not to mention the World Day of the Sick in last weekend's bulletin. We celebrate the World Day of the Sick on February 11 each year, which is the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. Our Lady of Lourdes appeared multiple times in 1858 to a young girl, Bernadette Soubirous, near her home in France. At the site of the apparitions, a miraculous spring of water was uncovered. Since then, thousands of people have bathed in the waters of Lourdes and have been physically healed of illness and infirmity. Moreover, the apparitions of Our Lady of Lourdes to Saint Bernadette have become an important chapter in the tradition of our Catholic faith.

First established by Saint John Paul II in 1992, the World Day of the Sick gives us an opportunity every year to reflect upon the needs of those who are ill and to pray for those who accompany them, such as family members and health care workers. The Church continues the mission of Jesus by treating suffering individuals with tenderness, compassion, and love. Catholics remember the inalienable dignity of our infirm brothers and sisters, and we assist them as they carry the cross of their illness. To care for the sick is to care for Christ himself.

Let me draw your attention now to World Marriage Sunday, which falls on February 12 this year. Our annual celebration of World Marriage Sunday reminds us that promoting and defending marriage is one of the Church's most sacred responsibilities, especially considering our current cultural context. Nowadays, it is common for individuals not to enter into committed relationships; they simply shy away from the vulnerability, sacrifice, and unconditional love that marriage requires. For that reason, we must demonstrate to the world the attractiveness and goodness of marriage. Married love is worth it!

Several years ago, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops created ForYourMarriage.org and PorTuMatrimonio.org. These two websites are great resources for anyone seeking to learn more about the meaning, purpose, and beauty of the sacrament of marriage. They also provide practical tips and advice for married couples trying to live their married love more fully. We pray for such couples this weekend, as well as those who are preparing for the sacrament of marriage in the months ahead.

May the Lord bless you throughout the week.

This will help eliminate the confusion that we experienced at the last blood drive. Sign-ups will be available after all Masses starting next Saturday, February 18. Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

Fui negligente por no mencionar el Día Mundial de los Enfermos en el boletín de la semana pasada. Celebramos el Día Mundial de los Enfermos el 11 de febrero cada año, porque es la Fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Lourdes. Nuestra Señora de Lourdes se apareció varias veces en 1858 a una niña, Bernadette Soubirous, cerca de su casa en Francia. En el sitio de las apariciones, se descubrió una fuente de agua milagrosa. Desde entonces miles de personas se han bañado en las aguas de Lourdes y han sido sanadas y físicamente de enfermedades. Más aun, las apariciones de Nuestra Señora de Lourdes a Santa Bernadette se han convertido en un importante capítulo en la tradición de nuestra fe católica.

El Día Mundial de los Enfermos, instituido por San Juan Pablo II en 1992, nos brinda la oportunidad de reflexionar anualmente sobre las necesidades de los enfermos y de orar por los que los acompañan, como los familiares y los trabajadores de la salud. La Iglesia continúa la misión de Jesús de tratar a los que sufren con ternura, compasión y amor. Los católicos recuerdan la dignidad inalienable de nuestros hermanos y hermanas enfermos, y les ayudamos a llevar la cruz de su enfermedad. Cuidar a los enfermos es cuidar al mismo Cristo.

Permítanme dirigir su atención ahora al Domingo Mundial del Matrimonio, que cae el 12 de febrero este año. Nuestra celebración del Día Mundial del Matrimonio nos recuerda que promover y defender el matrimonio es una de las responsabilidades más sagradas de la Iglesia, especialmente en cuenta nuestro contexto cultural actual. Hoy en día, es común que las personas no entren en relaciones comprometidas; simplemente evitan la vulnerabilidad, el sacrificio y el amor incondicional que el matrimonio requiere. Por eso, debemos demostrar al mundo lo atractivo y la bondad del matrimonio. ¡El amor del matrimonio vale la pena!

Hace varios años, la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de Estados Unidos creó ForYourMarriage.org y PorTuMatrimonio.org. Estos dos sitios web son grandes recursos para cualquier persona que busca aprender más sobre el significado, el propósito y la belleza del sacramento del matrimonio. También proporcionan prácticas y consejos para las parejas casadas que tratan de vivir su amor más plenamente. Oramos por estas parejas este fin de semana, así como por aquellos que se están preparando para el sacramento del matrimonio en los próximos meses.

Que el Señor los bendiga durante toda la semana.

Padre David Schalk
