Lent and the Octave of Easter

Highlights include

We had a wonderful retreat for our First Communicants. First Communion is Saturday, May 17, at noon. I messed up the time of the Holy Thursday dinner. Mass Time is at 7:30pm. Other than that, the Triduum went well. We had many adults receive sacraments of initiation- on March 30 with the bishop at the cathedral and on April 19 at the Easter Vigil.

Our event on Divine Mercy Sunday went well -healthy tradition in the life of our parish.

Fundraising efforts –right now is the busiest time of the year with regard to fundraising Spring Fest

A success. Chris Drake really enjoyed himself. Brought parish together
Approximately $13,000 profit-final figures won't be known for a while yet. There is room for improvement. The committee will meet to talk about what needs tweaked.

Cinco de Mayo is this Friday (tickets still available! Call the office!) Everything is in place for a successful evening

BAA begins this weekend! Our goal last year: $64,000. We brought in more than $75,000
Our goal this year: $72,400. We hope to make it and then some. If we go over our goal, the money will be used for kitchen.

Rummage sale is right around the corner June 7 drop off and June 14 sale.

The BREAD Nehemiah Action is May 12. We hope to have a large turnout from Christ the King.

Seminarians

We're getting a seminarian for the summer. Dan Olvera. He is a seminarian for the Diocese of Columbus-will be ordained a priest in three years. He arrives May 17.

We'll probably be assigned a seminarian deacon in the fall to be with us throughout the school year (from the Josephinum). He will be from another diocese in the U.S.

The Missionary Servants of the Word are slowly entering more fully into the life of the parish. It will be nice to start a new year with them this summer. We are planning their activities together with the rest of the parish activities. They are busy.

Lifetouch project is underway. We are still pushing for more families to sign up. The photo directory will be finished sometime in the next few months.
