From the Pastor's Desk

We are in the midst of the Church's observation of National Marriage Week (Feb. 7-14), and this weekend we celebrate World Marriage Sunday. We take this opportunity to reflect upon the gift of married love and to support engaged and married couples within the Church. We believe that marriage is an exquisite blessing God has bestowed upon the human race. The exclusive and lifelong bond between husband and wife provides a stable home for children, as well as a greater financial, emotional, and spiritual foundation for a family. Marriage is indeed the institution that underpins the family and is thereby an essential aspect of every society. All this begs the question: Where would we be without marriage? The answer is frightening to consider. So we pray this weekend for married couples and for young men and women who will be married in the months ahead. May they never take for granted their vocation to marriage or forget its importance in the life of the Church and the world.

It turns out that February 8 is also the annual day of prayer and awareness against human trafficking. February 8 was chosen because it is the Feast of St. Josephine Bakhita, who was kidnapped as a child and sold into slavery in Sudan and Italy. Upon being set free, she became a religious sister and dedicated her life to comforting the poor and suffering. This heroic woman gives us a shining example of perseverance, hope, forgiveness, and holiness. Together with St. Josephine Bakhita, let pray for the tens of millions of slaves in the world today and do our part to eliminate this ongoing atrocity.

May the Lord bless you throughout the upcoming week.

Father David Schalk

Answer to last week's question: The first pope to use Twitter was Pope Benedict XVI.

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

Estamos en medio de la Semana Nacional del Matrimonio de la Iglesia (7-14 de Febrero), y este fin de semana celebramos el Domingo Mundial del Matrimonio. Tomamos esta oportunidad para reflexionar sobre el regalo del amor del matrimonio y para apoyar a las parejas comprometidas y casadas en la Iglesia. Creemos que el matrimonio es una bendición maravillosa que Dios ha derramado sobre la raza humana. El vínculo exclusivo y permanente entre el marido y la mujer proporciona un hogar estable para los hijos, así como una gran base económica, emocional y espiritual para la familia. El matrimonio es de hecho la institución en la que se basa la familia y es, por lo tanto, un aspecto esencial de toda sociedad. Todo esto nos lleva a preguntarnos: ¿Dónde estaríamos si no existiera el matrimonio? La respuesta es aterradora. Oremos este fin de semana por las parejas casadas y por los jóvenes, hombres y mujeres, que se casarán en los próximos meses. Ojalá que nunca tomen a la ligera su vocación al matrimonio ni olviden su importancia en la vida de la Iglesia y del mundo.

Sucede que el 8 de febrero también es el día anual de oración y concientización contra el tráfico humano. Se eligió el 8 de febrero porque es la Fiesta de Santa Josefina Bakhita, quien fue secuestrada de niña y vendida como esclava en Sudan e Italia. Después de ser liberada, se convirtió en hermana religiosa y dedicó su vida a consolar a los pobres y a los que sufren. Esta heroica mujer nos da un claro ejemplo de perseverancia, esperanza, perdón, y santidad. Juntos con Santa Josefina Bakhita, oremos por las decenas de millones de esclavos en el mundo de hoy y hagamos nuestra parte para eliminar esta atrocidad que permanece en nuestros días.

Que el Señor los bendiga durante la próxima semana.

Padre David Schalk
