From the Pastor's Desk

August 14 is the Feast of Saint Maximilian Kolbe, one of the most prominent saints of the twentieth century. Saint Maximilian was a Franciscan priest who had a great missionary spirit and a tremendous love for the Blessed Virgin Mary. He was captured by the Nazis during World War II and sent to the concentration camp in Auschwitz. A fellow prisoner – a married man with children – was sentenced to death, but Saint Maximilian offered his life in place of his friend's. The Nazi guards accepted his offer and placed Saint Maximilian in a starvation bunker where he spent two weeks without food or water. During that time, he led prayers with other prisoners and maintained a peaceful calm until the Nazis finally ended his life with a lethal injection.

Throughout his life, Saint Maximilian found sure support in his devotion to Blessed Virgin Mary. He knew that the most effective way to a meaningful relationship with the Son of God is through a deep relationship with his Mother. For that reason, Saint Maximilian consecrated his life to Jesus through the intercession of Mary. She was the channel through which God's grace reached him, and under her protective mantle he sought to increase God's Kingdom in both life and death.

With the example of Saint Maximilian in mind, I want to invite and encourage everyone to go to Mass on Monday, August 15, which is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. On this feast, we remember that Mary, at the end of her life on earth, was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory. Because August 15 falls on a Monday this year, the Assumption is not a Holy Day of Obligation – but it is a Holy Day of Opportunity! We have the blessed opportunity to give praise to our God by honoring His Mother at Mass (7:00 a.m. English and 7:00 p.m. bilingual). God has gifted us with a wonderful Mother, and we look forward to seeing her, Saint Maximilian, and all of the saints in heaven when our life on earth runs its course.

May the Lord bless you throughout the week.

Father David Schalk

Answer to last week's question: Saint Lawrence believed the poor and sick were the Church's treasure. That is, as Christians we value most the lowly, vulnerable, meek, and marginalized.

This week's question: Gold, silver, and bronze medals are awarded to first, second, and third place finishers at the Olympics. When and where was this idea introduced?

The Sisters' Corner

The sisters would like to invite children between the ages of 7-12 to participate in Vacation Bible School this week, from August 15-19, from 5:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the church basement. Please call the convent at 614-884-0637 to register or for additional information. (This event is in Spanish.)

To conclude Vacation Bible School, there will be a children's retreat on Saturday, August 20, from 1:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. in the church basement. Please join us! (This event is in Spanish.)

The sisters would also like to invite all married couples to attend a Couple's Retreat on Saturday, August 27, and Sunday, August 28, from 8:00 a.m. until 9:00 p.m. in the school gym. The deadline to register is August 20, and there will be no childcare available. Please contact the sisters after Mass or call the convent at 614-884-0637 for more information. (This event is in Spanish.)

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

El 14 de agosto es la fiesta de San Maximiliano Kolbe, uno de los santos más destacados del siglo XX. San Maximiliano fue un sacerdote franciscano con un gran espíritu misionero y un tremendo amor por la Virgen María. Fue capturado por los nazis durante la Segunda Guerra Mundial y enviado al campo de Auschwitz. Un compañero de prisión - un hombre casado y con hijos - fue condenado a muerte, pero San Maximiliano ofreció su vida en lugar de su amigo. Los guardias nazis aceptaron y colocaron a San Maximiliano en el búnker del hambre, donde pasó dos semanas sin comida ni agua. Durante ese tiempo guió las oraciones con otros presos y mantuvo una pacífica calma hasta que finalmente los nazis pusieron fin a su vida con una inyección letal.

A lo largo de su vida, San Maximiliano encontró apoyo seguro en su devoción a la Virgen María. Él sabía que la manera más eficaz para una relación profunda con el Hijo de Dios es a través de una profunda relación con su madre. Por esa razón, San Maximiliano consagró su vida a Jesús, a través de María. Ella fue el canal a través del cual la gracia de Dios le llegaba, y bajo su manto protector buscó acrecentar el Reino de Dios en la vida y en la muerte.

Con el ejemplo de San Maximiliano en mente, quiero invitar y animar a todos a asistir a misa el lunes 15 de agosto, que es la Solemnidad de la Asunción de la Virgen María. En esta fiesta, recordamos que María, al final de su vida terrenal, fue asunta en cuerpo y alma a la gloria celestial. Debido a que 15 de agosto cae en lunes este año, la Asunción no es un día de precepto - ¡pero es la Oportunidad de un Día Santo! Tenemos la bendita oportunidad de alabar a nuestro Dios al honrar a su Madre en la misa (7:00 a.m. en inglés, y 7:00 p.m. bilingüe). Dios nos ha dado una madre maravillosa, y esperamos verla a ella, a San Maximiliano, y a todos los santos en el cielo cuando nuestra vida en la tierra termine su curso.

Que el Señor los bendiga durante toda esta semana.

Padre David Schalk

Respuesta a la pregunta pasada: San Lorenzo creía que los pobres y enfermos eran el tesoro de la Iglesia. Es decir, como cristianos valoramos más lo bajo, vulnerable, dócil y marginado.

Pregunta de esta semana: Las medallas de oro, plata y bronce se entregan a los finalistas del primer, segundo y tercer lugar en las olimpiadas. ¿Dónde y cuándo comenzó esta idea?
