From the Pastor's Desk

The Missionary Servants of the Word have been at Christ the King for more than three years. These religious sisters have made a lasting impact on our community, and I am counted among many who are enormously grateful for their presence among us. Their faith, joy, and commitment to the Lord provide an example for us all. Honestly, I do not know what the parish would do without them.

For better or for worse, the life of a missionary sister does not lend itself to staying in one place. Since opening the convent in 2013, we have had a total of six sisters: Mother Neri, Sister Griselda, Sister Zeltzin, Sister Blanca, Sister Laura, and Sister Jaqueline. Mother Neri has been the rock, serving as superior for the past three years. But the other sisters have come and gone, depending on the assignments given to them by their order.

This weekend, we are announcing another change. We have lost Sister Jaqueline, who has been recently reassigned to St. Stephen the Martyr Church on the west side of Columbus. Sister Jackie has done great things for Christ the King – both her smile and enthusiasm are contagious – and we will miss her. That having been said, I am sure that this wonderful religious sister will continue to serve the Lord well in her new assignment. (We are fortunate she is staying in our diocese.) Please know that Sister Jackie is being replaced by Sister Rocío, a Missionary Servant of Word who has been working in California for the past several years. If you see Sister Rocío in the days ahead, welcome her warmly.

May the Lord bless you throughout the week.

Father David Schalk

Answer to last week's question: The Feast of the Immaculate Conception was instituted in 1854 by Pope Pius IX.

This week's question: What does the rose (pink) candle lit on the third Sunday of Advent symbolize?

The Sisters' Corner

You are invited to the celebration of posadas from Friday, December 16, until Friday, December 23. We will meet in the church at 7:00 p.m. each night. The posadas will feature Christmas carols, the Rosary, and piñatas for the entire family to enjoy. We are excited to receive our newborn King! (This event is in Spanish.)

On Sunday, December 18, at 4:00 p.m., we will have a gathering in the basement of the church to discuss and learn more about the apparitions of Our Lady of Guadalupe. An Advent Dinner will follow. All parishioners are invited. Please register with the Sisters in the vestibule after Mass this weekend or contact the office, 614-237-0401. (This event is in English.)

There will be volunteers selling cards after all the Masses. A percentage of all sales will benefit All Saints Academy. Stop by and get a Christmas gift for that special friend or relative. (This event is bilingual.)

Desde el Escritorio del Párroco

Las Misioneras Servidoras de la Palabra han estado en Christ the King por más de tres años. Estas religiosas han tenido un impacto duradero en nuestra comunidad, y me cuento entre los muchos que están agradecidos por su presencia entre nosotros. Su fe, gozo y compromiso con el Señor son un ejemplo para todos nosotros. Sinceramente, no sé qué haría la parroquia sin ellas.

Para bien o para mal, la vida de una hermana misionera no es para permanecer en un solo lugar. Desde que abrimos el convento en 2013, hemos tenido a seis hermanas: la Madre Neri, la Hermana Griselda, la Hermana Zeltzin, la Hermana Blanca, la Hermana Laura y la Hermana Jaqueline. La Madre Neri ha sido la roca, sirviendo como superiora durante los tres años. Pero las otras hermanas han ido y venido, dependiendo de las asignaciones que les da su orden.

Este fin de semana estamos anunciando otro cambio. La Hermana Jaqueline se va, porque recientemente ha sido reasignada St. Stephen the Martyr en el oeste de Columbus. La Hermana Jackie ha hecho grandes cosas por Christ the King - tanto su sonrisa como su entusiasmo son contagiosos - y la extrañaremos. Estoy seguro de que esta maravillosa hermana religiosa continuará sirviendo al Señor en su nueva tarea. (Tenemos la suerte de que siga estando en nuestra diócesis.) Por favor, sepan que la Hermana Jackie va a ser reemplazada por la Hermana Rocío, una Misionera Servidora de la Palabra que ha trabajado en California los últimos años. Si ven a la Hermana Rocío en los próximos días, recíbanla con cariño.

Que el Señor los bendiga durante toda la semana.

Padre David Schalk
